

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEApril 3, 2025*South Asian Filmmakers Shine at the 2025 Sundar Prize Film Festival

Surrey, BC - The Sundar Prize Film Festival proudly celebrates a dynamic and diverse slate of South Asian filmmakers whose stories reflect resilience, cultural depth, and bold artistic vision. From heartfelt dramas and powerful documentaries to genre-bending shorts, these selections represent voices from across the South Asian diaspora. With multiple BC, Canadian, and World Premieres, this year's lineup showcases both emerging and established talent in impactful ways.

Alex Sangha, Festival Co-Founder:

"Our mission has always been to uplift underrepresented voices, and this year's showcase of South Asian filmmakers is truly a milestone. These stories go beyond borders—they challenge norms, celebrate identity, and offer a powerful lens into the human condition."

Vinay Giridhar, Festival Co-Founder and Finalist Juror:

"As a juror, I was deeply moved by the emotional honesty and creative risk-taking in so many of these films. It's inspiring to see South Asian filmmakers fearlessly share stories that are personal, political, and profoundly universal."

Sidartha Murjani, Executive Director and Senior Programmer:

"This year's lineup is a testament to the incredible storytelling emerging from the South Asian diaspora. From bold visual styles to compelling narratives, these films are pushing boundaries and redefining what South Asian cinema can be."
